Residential on 1.44 Acres

NONE AVAILABLE, Hydes, MD

Welcome to 13121 Bottom Rd!

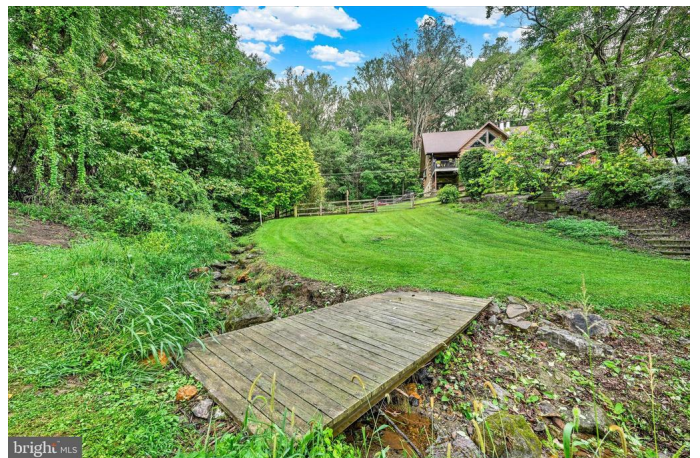

Discover this one-of-a-kind modern log home, custom built in 2007, and perfectly nestled on a beautifully landscaped lot. This remarkable residence combines the charm of rustic design with the durability of superior foundation walls, ensuring both sturdiness and tranquility.

The first-floor living layout offers convenience and accessibility, featuring a spacious master bedroom, a well-appointed bathroom, a large kitchen, and a laundry area—perfect for easy living. An additional bedroom or office space on the first floor adds versatility to the home's design.

Use your creativity with the unfinished basement, with impressively tall ceilings and plumbing rough-ins, ready to be transformed into your ideal space. A one-car garage and a run-out shed down the hill provide ample storage solutions.

Embrace the serenity of the surrounding landscape, with a beautiful creek running along the property and plenty of land to explore and enjoy. The peaceful setting is ideal for growing plants and gardens, offering a gardener's paradise with mature landscaping.

This home is set on a quiet road, enhancing privacy and offering a retreat-like atmosphere.

With exposed woodwork, soaring ceiling heights, an open floor plan, and beautifully crafted custom stone work, this home is as aesthetically pleasing as it is functional. Superbly insulated, it ensures comfort and energy efficiency throughout the seasons.

Fun fact! Extensive research suggests that wood homes and interior walls positively affect mental health, largely due to a psychological connection to nature. The natural aesthetic and warmth provided by the wood enhance well-being, making this home a peaceful place to live!

Experience the perfect blend of nature, privacy, and modern living at this extraordinary log home.
